FRIDAY, AUGUST 24 -CHASE BRYANT and CHRIS LANE

CHASE BRYANT: Music defines Chase Bryant. The top-flight guitar player, head-turning songwriter, recording artist and producer is one of the most celebrated new artists in today's Country music landscape. His guitar wielding, vocally-charged Top 10 debut single, "Take It On Back," spent 15 consecutive weeks on the CMT Hot 20 Countdown, seven weeks on the GAC Top 20 Country Countdown and was a Top 20 Most Watched Video on VEVO TV Nashville. Most recently, Bryant toured as support on Brad Paisley's Weekend Warrior World Tour and dropped his new single, the high-energy track, "Hell If I Know."

CHRIS LANE: Chris Lane, one of Country music's most groundbreaking new stars, mixes earth-shattering high notes with banjo plucks and a danceable beat. He may have some Girl Problems, as the title of his debut album suggests, but he has no problem creating a fresh sound that thrills Country fans and excites the Pop faithful. His first single, "Fix," topped the Country radio charts and was certified Gold in both the US and Canada. From the smooth, R&B vibe of "Who's It Gonna Be," to the twang Disco of "All The Time," and the mid-tempo "For Her," Lane brings fans on a ride from one exciting corner of the genre to the next, reinventing Country with every octave.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25 - SMASH MOUTH

The veteran rockers of Smash Mouth first hit the airwaves in 1997 with their major label debut, the Double-Platinum album, Fush Yu Mang, and have gone on to leave a permanent mark on pop culture with their iconic sound and hits that became the musical heart of the “Shrek” soundtrack.

Following its release, Fush Yu Mang’s hit single, “Walkin’ on the Sun,” became an immediate international sensation, quickly shooting to No. 1 on the Billboard charts. The band’s fiery debut set the stage for the 1999 masterpiece, Astro Lounge. The sophomore album, approaching Quadruple-Platinum status, boasts three Top 10 songs, “All-Star,” “Then The Morning Comes” and “Can’t Get Enough Of You Baby.” The smash hit, “I’m a Believer,” is featured on the band’s eponymous 2001 release.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1 – JEFFERSON STARSHIP

Jefferson Starship rose from the ashes of Rock and Roll Hall of Famers, Jefferson Airplane. Between 1974 and 1984, the band released eight Gold and Platinum albums and sold out concerts worldwide.

The music that defined a generation is alive and well in the hands of today’s Jefferson Starship. Songs such as “Volunteers,” “White Rabbit,” “Wooden Ships,” “Somebody to Love,” “Today,” “Miracles,” “Count on Me,” “Fast Buck Freddie,” “Jane” and “Find Your Way Back” continue to reverberate throughout pop culture decades later.

Featuring original and historic members David Freiberg (also a founder of Quicksilver Messenger Service) and drummer Donny Baldwin, along with longtime members Chris Smith on keyboards and synth bass, Jude Gold on lead guitar and GRAMMY nominee Cathy Richardson, Jefferson Starship remains dedicated to breathing new life into the catalog of the Jeffersonian legacy, going to the edge, pushing the sonic boundaries and staying true to the original spirit of the music.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 2 - CHRIS JANSON

Country artist and prolific singer/songwriter Chris Janson began his professional music career more than a decade ago, but his recently released sophomore album Everybody has elevated him to the next level. Said to be “quite possibly the most important song to come out of Nashville in years,” by CMT, Janson’s current single “Drunk Girl” is already drawing praise from fans and critics alike. The hit follows Janson’s chart-topping singles, “Fix A Drink,” and his debut album’s Platinum-certified smash, “Buy Me A Boat.”

Lauded for his high-energy, infectious performances, the electrifying multi-instrumentalist is currently hitting arenas across the nation this spring alongside label mate Cole Swindell on the Reasons To Drink Tour and will join Jake Owen for the Life’s Whatcha Make It Tour this summer.

After receiving an invitation to join the Grand Ole Opry from Keith Urban during his headlining show at the Ryman Auditorium, Janson is now the youngest living member of the hallowed organization. The breakout Country star has brought his live show to national stages on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, Late Night with Seth Meyers, TODAY, Live with Kelly & Ryan, and more.
